Thank you, Rick. This looks fantastic. My notes align with yours and I made three edits in the attached document. I need to run right back out to another appointment but will have my phone with me. If someone wants to forward to Cathy and Karen when complete, that works for me. Otherwise I should be back online by about 5:30.

Here's my first cut at slapping together what I remember. If any of you remember any additional details that are pertinent, please add them to the doc and send back so I can consolidate.
